7. Cast Vision

Faith - One night a house caught fire and a young boy was forced to flee to the roof. The father stood on the ground below with outstretched arms, calling to his son, "Jump! I'll catch you." He knew the boy had to jump to save his life. All the boy could see, however, was flame, smoke, and blackness. As can be imagined, he was afraid to leave the roof. His father kept yelling: "Jump! I will catch you." But the boy protested, "Daddy, I can't see you." The father replied, "But I can see you and that's all that matters."

Each person must make a choice either to accept or reject God! Tell your family and friends about God's love so that they can choose life with Him!

8. Plan - With whom can I SHARE?

- Who else needs to hear what you are learning?
- Is there anyone you can invite to join us?

Notes:

- Always read from the Bible. Use it as your only resource!
- Always remember that you are modelling how they will do this in the future, so don't get too creative!

"For I know the plans I have for you," says the Lord. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. In those days when you pray, I will listen. If you look for Me wholeheartedly, you will find Me." Jeremiah 29:11-13

Hear & Obey (15-20 minutes)

4. New Lesson - What does the story SAY?

Let participants read the story 2 times in two different translations.

Learn

- What do you learn about people in this story?
- What do you learn about Jesus (God) in this story?
- To you, who is Jesus?
- Where do you see yourself in this story? Why?
- How do lives change in this story?

5. Application - What must I OBEY?

- What choices did the people in this story make? What choice will you make?

Correct

Do's and Do Not's

- Do keep it short (1 hour or less).
- Do let the Holy Spirit be the teacher.
- Do remember to study for obedience rather than for knowledge!
- Don't dominate the conversation; encourage everyone to participate.
Facilitator = 30%, Participants = 70%
- Don't demand correct answers.
- Don't get distracted, stay on topic.
- Don't be afraid to say "I don't know the answer, I'll get back to you."

The Great Feast and The Narrow Door

Luke 14:15-24, 13:22-30 (NLT)

The Great Feast

15 A man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, "What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet in the Kingdom of God!"

16 Jesus replied with this story: "A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations. 17 When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, 'Come, the banquet is ready.' 18 But they all began making excuses. One said, 'I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.' 19 Another said, 'I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.' 20 Another said, 'I just got married, so I can't come.'

21 "The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, 'Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.' 22 After the servant had done this, he reported, 'There is still room for more.' 23 So his master said, 'Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full. 24 For none of those I first invited will get even the smallest taste of my banquet.'"

The Narrow Door

22 Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as He went, always pressing on toward Jerusalem. 23 Someone asked Him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?"

He replied, 24 "Work hard to enter the narrow door to God's Kingdom, for many will try to enter but will fail. 25 When the master of the house has locked the door, it will be too late. You will stand outside knocking and pleading, 'Lord, open the door for us!' But He will reply, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' 26 Then you will say, 'But we ate and drank with You, and You taught in our streets.' 27 And He will reply, 'I tell you, I don't know you or where you come from. Get away from Me, all you who do evil.'

28 "There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, for you will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you will be thrown out. 29 And people will come from all over the world—from east and west, north and south—to take their places in the Kingdom of God. 30 And note this: Some who seem least important now will be the greatest then, and some who are the greatest now will be least important then."
